

Sinclair Broadcasting's airing of the politically charged anti-Kerry movie just days before the election is an appalling breach of their contract with the public. Political advertising must be labeled as such and paid for as political advertising. That this media company would so egregiously declare that they are "above the law" is unacceptable.

Please take your responsibilities seriously and move immediately to stop this illegal corporate takeover of the public airwaves.

Thank you.